Other Info:	Produced by Lafite Rotschild and Nicolas Catena, Aruma is a pure Malbec made from a blend of grapes from the best terroirs in the Mendoza region. Thanks to the meticulous work in the vineyard and winery, this diversity offers an incomparable complexity with which to achieve the balance, elegance and depth of flavour that make great Malbecs. Aruma means night in the language of the Quechua, the native Indian population of the Mendoza region. The name suggests the deep darkness of the nights in the Andes and the very pure mountain air: the wines have the same rich, authentic character as their terroir.
