'Beronia's Rioja Reserva has risen very rapidly up the bestseller's ladder to become a consumer favourite. It's the result of plenty of investment by owner, Sherry giant Gonzalez Byass. This Reserva is a superb wine with sumptuous fruit and complex development".' - DECANTER Magazine

"This Reserva is a blend of 90% Tempranillo, 5% Graciano and 5% Mazuelo aged for 18 months in American and French oak. Well-made and traditional style of Rioja that's drinking beautifully now and will age well". - Anthony Rose, The Independent.

Other Info:

Bodegas Beronia is situated in Ollauri, in the Rioja Alta, and is quintessentially classic Rioja. Its wines are defined by the region and the soils in which the vines are grown, and its name linked to the history of the land where the winery is found. In the 3rd Century BC the area known as Rioja today was inhabited by a celtic tribe called the 'Berones'. They inhabited the towns of Tricio, Varea and Leiva, marking the limits of the Berones region, today La Rioja. The founding ethos of Beronia is strongly allied to the origins of La Rioja.
