Other Info: Bodegas la Emperatriz is great find. A picturesque estate in the heart of Rioja Alta which has been winning awards since the Paris Universal Exposition of 1878, when it was owned by the last empress of France, Eugenia de Montijo. Now owned by the Hernaiz family since 1996, the estate boasts 67 years old vine Garnacha and Viura, and produces Rioja's only single estate Crianza. Their wines have proved a huge hit with wine critics across the globe and are widely listed in Madrid's Michelin starred restaurants.
