Food / cocktail recipe:

Press 'Based in Appledore, Gusbourne is now firmly established in the premier league of top English wine producers. The style here is always elegant, with, in this case, the pronounced, mouthwatering, typically English acidity honed to a fine line and presented with hints of brioche, lemon and apricot' - David Williams, The Observer's 50 best wines for Christmas 2016

"Pick of the bunch: Sparkling wines from Kent's Gusbourne Estates are winning top awards" The Independent, 14/02/14.

Awards Gold Award - Champagne and Sparkling Wine World Championships

2018

International Wine & Spirit Competition award for 'English Wine Producer of the Year'

Other Info:

Gusbourne Estate sits on the low slopes of the ancient Kentish escarpment at Appledore. The extensive two hundred hectare Estate is on a single site with twenty hectares under vine cultivation with Chardonnay, Pinot Noir and Pinot Meunier grapes. They are currently planting a further ten hectares of these Champagne clone vines, placing the extent of their plantings amongst the largest vineyards in England.
