

Jack Ryan 12 Year Old, Irish Single Malt

£54.99

Vintage:

Bottle Size: 70cl

Alcohol %: 46%

Country: Ireland

Description: Superbly complex for a 12 year old. That high Malt content definitely shows through. The old triple pot distillation which made Irish whiskeys so popular in the late 1800's is back with full force. Great richness on the palate, soft and rounded. Easily approachable for anyone wanting to get into Whiskey/Whisky...

Awards Irish Whiskey Awards 2014- Best Single Malt 12 Years Old and under

Other Info: Jack Ryan's pub is a famous old Dublin established on Haddington Road, it is also known by many locals as Beggars Bush. The pub traded as a traditional grocers for many years with a pub and shop operating in unison. At the time they bottled their own brand of malt whiskey that was sourced from the old DWD on Jones Road. This new whiskey is a limited edition recreation of the brand, DWD is long gone so the whiskey comes to them via the Teeling Whiskey Company. Limited to a production of just 1450 bottles. Lots of malt, and tropical fruit flavour characters. This has been matured in ex-bourbon casks.
