'Young and showing primary fruit flavors of cranberry and raspberry, this wine isn't shy about incorporating stem and grape skin flavors. It's a style that favors longterm aging over immediate accessibility and will reward decanting and/or cellaring. Drink 2020-2030.' - Paul Gregutt, Wine Enthusiast, January 2018

'Under the helm of noted Master Sommelier Larry Stone along with Burgundy master Dominique Lafon, this Pinot Noir is so fine-tuned. The nose is soft and succulent, with notes of dark black cherry, blueberry, violet, vanilla candle, and cotton candy, heightened by a prickly palate, with tart, spicy cherry flavors and a touch of high-toned herbs.' - Courtney Schiessl, Vine Pair, December 2017
