Other Info: This delicious white hails from Trapani on the West Coast of Sicily, a sun-kissed area North of Marsala where the grapes ripen to perfection, cooled by Mediterranean Sea breezes. Winemaker Stefano Chioccioli sourced indigenous Catarratto, Inzolia and Grecanico grapes for this wine from some areas of best vineyards, vinifying the fruit separately at cool temperatures to extract all their mouthwatering aromas and crisp acidity. After blending, the wine was left to mature on its lees to develop its rich tropical fruit flavours. No oak was used.

Grape Variety: 50% Catarratto, 30% Inzolia and 20% Grecanico
