Other Info:

This rum is produced by R.L. Seale at the Foursquare Distillery, one of the oldest remaining sugar plantations and rum distilleries on Barbados. Taking its name from Square Pond in the area, the Foursquare distillery was completely renovated in 1996. It is also the only remaining Barbadian owned rum manufacturer in Barbados. R. L. Seale is a family operated company dating back to the 1820s. Their modern distillery, renovated in 1996, is located on an estate that's been producing sugar since 1636. Master distiller and blender Richard Seale takes great pride in his authentic methods of producing, maturing and blending fine rums.
