Other Info: A fusion of unique and rare elements, and clouded in secrecy, Signet is the culmination of a lifetime's experience. A blend of our oldest whisky - distilled over thirty years ago when malting still occurred on site and spirit matured in a selection of the world's finest casks, this undoubtedly is the richest whisky in our range.

The Glenmorangie Company was founded in 1843 by Roederick Mackdonald and Alexander Muir. Today it is one of the most respected and well known Scottish Whisky brands the world over. The two main brands are Glenmorangie Highland single malt whisky and Ardbeg Islay single malt whisky. The two distilleries owned by the company are Glenmorangie, based in Tain in the Highlands and Ardbeg on the island of Islay.

Glenmorangie is world renowned for its handcrafted quality Malt. This came after it launched an ambitious campaign focusing on the quality of Glenmorangie, leading the way as a premium single malt throughout the world. Today it distributes its whiskies to over 120 markets worldwide. However it's still manages to remain one of the Highlands smallest distilleries, being run by only sixteen craftsmen. www.lvmh.com
