Description:

Made principally from Chardonnay (with occasional appearances from one or two varieties), Burgundy is responsible for some of the most revered white wines in the world. From the steely minerality of Chablis to the richness and depth of the Côte d'Or and down to the excellent value wines of the Mâcon - Burgundy has something for everyone. We've picked out some of our favourite white Burgundies for you to sample in this case, and we're sure you'll enjoy exploring this most famous of wine regions.
