Description: With a dark ruby red colour, Paul Cabernet Franc bursts with ripe red berry notes of blackberry and ripe cherry. The signature floral characters of Cabernet Franc are there too populating the aromatic profile. A dense but smooth tannic structure comes with crisp acidity that underlines the freshness of the dark berry fruit dominant notes. Layers of dark cocoa and pepper, with hints of delicately earthy traits make a stunningly bright tasting experience, yet with depth and complexity. A pure expression of Cabernet Franc, precise, floral and vibrant, fresh and acidic, yet deep and concentrated.

Other Info: Maison Ventenac is a family affair. Established in 1973 by Alain Maurel and his father, the estate is now in the hands of the 3rd generation.

Stéphanie, the eldest of Alain Maurel's 3 daughters, arrived with her husband, Olivier Ramé in 2010 to take over the estate and revamp its image. Thanks to his extensive training in wine-growing and oenology, Olivier succeeded in combining the old world heritage, passed down by his father-in-law, with the new world spirit. Located in the heart of the Cabardès AOC region, this 160-hectare vineyard (of which 30 hectares are rented) backs onto the Montagne Noire and enjoys both the Languedoc sun and the cool Atlantic influence all year round.
