Midleton Very Rare, a magnificent blend of the finest distillates hand-picked by the Master Distiller, Barry Crockett, is one of Ireland's most exclusive whiskeys. Midleton Very Rare was launched in 1984 to celebrate the whiskeys of Midleton Distillery and a new vintage has been released every year since then. The individual selection process for each vintage of Midleton Very Rare means that each year's vintage provides its own character. The whiskeys in Midleton Very Rare are aged between 12 and 25 years and are matured exclusively in seasoned Bourbon barrels. Each bottle carries its own individual number and the signature of our Master Distiller. Highly prized among collectors, we know of very few collections of all vintages since the first in 1984.
