

Palazzi GPG, Garganega/Pinot Grigio, Veneto

£7.69

Vintage: 2018

Bottle Size: 75cl

Alcohol %: 12%

Country: Italy

Description: Pale straw yellow in colour, this is a lightly aromatic dry Pinot Grigio with ripe citrus and baked apple characters. It is fresh, crisp and easy to drink, with soft, lightly honeyed fruit. It's certainly more interesting than your basic Pinot Grigio!

Cepages: Pinot Gris(Pinot Grigio),Garganega

Group: Italy

Sub group: Veneto & Friuli

Colour: White

Closure: Screwcap

Producer: Adria Vini

Website:

Organic/Bio Status:

Food / cocktail match: This is a highly versatile wine, ideal as an aperitif or with seafood, grilled fish, salads and cold white meat.

Food / cocktail recipe:

Press

Awards
2012 Vintage: IWSC 2013 - Bronze
2011 Vintage: Decanter World Wine Awards 2012 - Bronze
2011 Vintage: International Wine Challenge 2012 - Bronze
2011 Vintage: "Fresh, pear scented, appealing nose. Depth on the palate; nutty with some late harvest notes." Decanter Awards edition, October

Other Info: Set up in 2003, Adria Vini owned by Boutinot and Araldica Vini

Piemontesi, the leading co-operative in Piemonte. All aspects of production, from grape harvesting through to vinification, maturation, blending and bottling are overseen by Araldica's Claudio Manera and Lella Burdese. The aim is to produce a range of authentic, well-priced wines from local Italian grape varieties.